

A DIY Guide To Poker Tables

1 Golf Shots

Since I've been so busy making these manuals I really haven't gotten time to get down to the range to practice my golf game. Making these manuals isn't easy, you know? Anyways, go to Section 5 of Double Down On Home Development so I can keep this pity party going.

2 Flowers

The tulip fields you can find in Europe remind me of a rainbow laid out across the ground. To learn more about colors of the rainbow, go to Section 6 of A Few Words On Security Cameras.

3 Breeds Of Sheep

The state of California is home to over 550,000 sheep, the two main breeds being the California Red and the California Variegated Mutant. Go to Injection Molding For Dummies Section 4 to learn more about the islands where sheep could outnumber humans 120 to 1.

4 Sports

It's not uncommon to see sports athletes suffering from muscle cramps munching on high potassium foods like bananas as a remedy. If you'd like to know more about other produce with medicinal healing properties, turn to How To Rappel Like A Pro Section 6.

5 Types Of Hats

You know how if you picture a person wearing a particular kind of hat, you could also guess the kind of car they drive? You don't? Well go to Techniques For Using Walkie Talkies Section 2 to find out.

6 Parts Of A Ship

In order to keep the wood on ships from catching fire while making meals, the kitchens on ships were lined with sheets of tin. To learn more about preparing meals while at sea, go to How To Rappel Like A Pro Section 3.

7 U.S. Presidents

Did you know that Dwight D. Eisenhower began the U.S. sister city program in 1956? Go to Gambling Terms And Their Meanings Section 3 to learn more about some U.S. sister cities.
