

How To Rappel Like A Pro

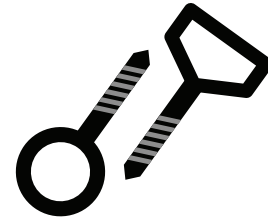

1 Imperial System Units

Can someone explain the imperial system to me? Even as an american it makes no sense. How quickly can you tell me what 110 inches is in yards? Not very fast. Go to Double Down On Home Development Section 3 to learn more about why this system gives me headaches.

2 Apple Varieties

Florida is known for its climate to grow many fruits, but apples aren't one of them. Go to Building With Tools Section 4 to learn more about Florida's fruits.

3 Kitchen Utensils

There are so many kitchen utensils outside of the ones we use every day. I just wish my apartment's kitchen was big enough to fit them all. Go to A Few Words On Security Cameras Section 1 to learn more about them.

4 Fashion Magazines

Fashion is an amazing industry. They can make anything look good, or at least make it look like it's supposed to look good. Go to Section 5 of Building With Tools to learn about how they can even anything look good.

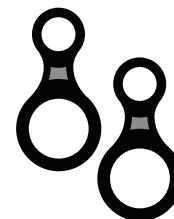

5 Songs By Porter Robinson

+5 points if you know who Porter Robinson is without having to look it up. Just kidding, I'm not authorized to give points. Go to Gambling Terms And Their Meanings Section 7 and I'll give you a reward there, I promise.

6 Things In Space

We as a society should prepare for life in space by thinking about what new things we can do once we're there. Like space soccer! If you want more of my great space sport ideas, go to A DIY Guide To Poker Tables Section 4.

7 Roles In Part 2 Of The Nutcracker

Dances in the Nutcracker should've been named after other kinds of foods too, not just candy. Like what about Frolicking in the Bean Fields? No? Okay... Go to Building With Tools Section 1 so you can at least hear me out about it.
